

Deceptions

Deceptions is the story of politics and intrigue. Johni and Molly don't want to see their friend Ricki get married to someone she barely knows but out of loyalty they join their friend in Guam for her wedding. Shortly after they arrive on the island Ricki turns up dead. Did the new bride do it? Johni and Molly launch into a search for Ricki's killer that takes them into the world of politics. Someone for the past ten years has been killing lesbians and gays who have come to the island to marry. Up until now the murders have appeared to be suicide but Johni and Molly discover that there are more sinister forces at work here. The local police ask Johni and Molly to become involved in their investigation and much to Johni's dismay, Molly is all for the idea. Things begin to happen and suddenly Molly is in danger. Will Johni save Molly's life? Is Molly in way over her head? Who is murdering newlyweds? Deceptions takes the reader on a ride through the back alleys of the political underbelly of the fight for lesbian and gay marriages. Based in beautiful Guam, Deceptions is a story that promises to entertain and inform while taking the reader on a ride through the dangers of politics and murder.
