

Forbidden Promises

In a saltwater world off Floridas Keys the many races of Mermaids play out their lives. Some are confined to the depths and not able to live ashore like the original Mer species. Over the ages interbreeding with Mankind has formed other Mermaid races quite capable of living both on land and in the ocean: Womers, Homers, Shaamers and Glammers the last race not seen on the Earth since they were known as Sirens back in the days when Greek poets wrote of their menacing and deadly contact with sailors. While no laws existed among the various races, one law did. Forbidden Promises was the pairing of a Merman with a Womer female. There were only female Mermaids of each race. This paring produced a Shaamer Mermaid and not a Womer like her mother. No Womer could raise a baby Shaamer, just as no Shaamer could raise a Womer baby; still love was what it was. This is the story of the child of such forbidden love. It is not without its heartbreak.
