

This book is one of the most representative masterpieces of Soviet-Russian literature and also one of the most exciting works of the world literature. Since its appearance, it has always enjoyed enduring popularity, which is not only because it truly and profoundly depicts the broad life picture of Ukraine before and after the Russian October Revolution but also for the classical image of PalKuchajin it portrays. In this epic-like biographic novel, Pal Kuchajin shaped by the author Ostrowski clings to his faith and possesses gritty lofty personality, whose image is beyond the time and space, influencing the whole world and stirring the souls of generations of people.
