

TEE with Carly

The Story: Tee Reed is a very successful businesswoman. She has an MBA from the Cox School of Business at SMU in Dallas. She owns a gay bar plus a building in the entertainment district that encompasses a high-end restaurant, a private club, a ballroom where the annual GLBT ball is held, a spa, and her corporate offices. She meets a lawyer, Carly Matthews, who is successful in her own right at the most prestigious law firm in Dallas. They immediately feel a connection. Tee is the only one who sees past the obvious and into Carlys innermost desires and then proceeds to fulfill them. She is everything Carly has always wanted. And then life happens. Miscommunication happens along with a sexual harassment lawsuit involving both of them. Its the start of the wedge between them that seems to be splitting them apart. Even as they struggle with their lost love, life complicates things in the form of wanting to do the right thing for a client versus doing what the boss says for Carly. Tee concentrates on buying a new bar in the San Antonio River Walk district to keep her mind off Carly. Can they ever get past the past and move forward or are they finished? Excerpt: Once inside Carlys apartment, Tee immediately pinned Carly against the door. Her mouth was hot and demanding as she kissed her. The kiss was rough and bruising with need, while her hands tore at her shirt, pushing it up to expose her flimsy lace bra. Tee sucked her way down her neck, nipping and kissing every inch of the way. She leaned back just enough to pull the top over Carlys head and flick the clasp on her bra. She impatiently swept the garments down her arms and flung them to the floor. With nothing between them, Tee captured her breasts, twisting and pulling at nipples that were already hard as rocks. She looked into Carlys eyes and saw the answering need, the hidden need, the need she never acknowledged. It sent a raging rush streaking through her.
