

If you would like to buy them inside a collection of works, you might want to check out The Ninja Collection (4 stories total.) Ninja 3: Escape or Die - Two Choices! It was a good idea. Trapping them like this in an illusion. Kreal and his friends are fighting for their lives in a battle of wills where the real and unreal are mixed. This fight will take them to the limit and leave one of their number seriously harmed. Its a fight to survive ninja style. Sample Content: Story is about 2300 words. The world twisted sickeningly and Kreal vomited. He was almost getting used to this. The sickness lasted as long as it took him to feel better then they would twist him again and he would feel sick again. It was a good idea. Whoever was doing this was smart. Damn you demon! the scream came from his right and a burst of green fire came from that direction. That had been one surprising point for Kreal. Apparently, Ko lost his street accent in this world of illusion. He didnt know if it was a trick of the world around them or if Ko actually didnt have that accent and was just putting it on to hide something. He would have to find out later. He focused. He had been going through each of his glyphs trying to see if one of them would break the illusion. So far no luck. The world settled. He was standing on a big green field. All around him men were fighting in black uniforms. He threw himself to the side as a series of small knives came at him. That was close. Ninja 4: The Emperor Must Die! Kreal has one more fight left in him. Hes been contracted for the biggest job of his life and hes joined up with enemies and allies to make it happen. Today he will meet a man that is more than his match and find out the true meaning of power. Read on to see how he survives his last battle in a way that only a ninja could. Sample Content: Story is about 2200 words. There was a tapping sound and Kreal turned with his small sword at the ready. So its you? Kreal said. The man mumbled something through the bandages. He had burns on his face and hands and looked like he should have still been in bed rather than standing here right now with Kreal. I cant understand you, speak up, Kreal said. The man lifted the bandages off his mouth a little and mumbled something that Kreal could sort of understand. Well, its not fun seeing you either, Light. Looks like you got a little too close to the fire, Kreal said. He had done this to the man. he was surprised he didnt try to kill him. The man mumbled at him. Yes, we can settle this later. Thats very mature of you. Light pointed and explained. So, you, me and Zou go inside and assassinate the emperor and the rest of the men fight off the guards and ninjas stationed here? Sounds like a good plan, Kreal summarized. Light rolled his eyes and nodded. Youre much more fun to be around when you cant speak, Kreal said. A ninja star landed at his feet. Apparently, Dark had survived as well. Kreal turned to his view of the courtyard. They would begin as soon as the ninja around him were ready.
