Not illustrated. 1912 edition. Excerpt: ... intent to deceive, pretend to be a graduate from any incorporated dental college, or who shall practise dentistry without having a certificate as provided by law, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

SECTION 7. (As inserted by the act of 1903; April 2, Chap. 113.) Any association of persons whether incorporated or not, engaged in the practice of dentistry under the name of company or association, or any other title, shall cause to be displayed and kept in a conspicuous place in its office a certificate from the said board of the qualification of each person engaged in the practice of dentistry in said office. Any violation of this section shall subject the manager of said office to punishment by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

SECTION 8. (As amended 1903, April 2, Chap. 113.) Nothing in this chapter shall apply to a practising physician who is a graduate from the medical department of an incorporated college, or to a bona fide student of dentistry pursuing his studies under the direction of a qualified dentist.

NEW JERSEY 1898, March 17, Laws, Chap. 74, p. 119. SECTION 1. The following persons only shall be deemed licensed to practise dentistry in this State:

(a) Those who are now duly licensed and registered as dentists pursuant to law, and
(b) Those who may hereafter be duly licensed and registered as dentists pursuant to the provisions of this act. SECTION 2. Dental Board; Appointment, etc.

SECTION 3. The board shall from time to time adopt rules for its own government and for the examination of candidates for license to practise dentistry; any rule
