

The biggest conflict which no one is paying attention to is between Nature and Mankind. Global warming is one of the symbol of this conflict. This conflict needs to be resolved for sustainability to prevent mankind from becoming extinct. Raun a management professional investigates to reach the ultimate truth by putting his life and career at risk. The aim is to prove to the world that it is the only way to save mankind and resolve conflict. The journey of truth takes him through uncertain path and challenges making him at loggerheads with mankind on one hand and putting him at risk at not finding the elusive truth. Will he succeed in finding the cosmic truth? Will he be able to convince mankind that the reward for this hard journey will be eternal and sustainable peace and happiness? Is it worth taking a journey which will may take a life time with no end result.
