Mosl undoubtedly you cannot ask to the contents of any thing that is in writing, without producing the writing itself. Mr. Atorney General. I ask you, whether you did not, in your opinion and judgement,-disapprove of going up with this petition, accompanied by the general body I A. Yes. 91, Then, when it was determined before the zd of June to go up with the general bddy, you disapproved of it? A.; Ldid not know before the zd of June that it was to be; it was spoken of in the side-room a few minutes before his Lordship came to take the chair, that his Lordship iintended to resume that subjecc t that had been spoken to in the Old Crown and Rolls at the last publick meeting, and to know from the Association at large, whether they thought it proper to go up with it at large; and then it was that I and some others thought it would be inexpedient. Q, VVIpcther that was not the reason with you for not attending it, because you disap roved o it? P A. No; Ihad parochial duty. I Q Did any other of the committee attend that you know of? A. I dont know. Court. What-was the parochial duty you had to attend? A. Reading prayers; it was of a Friday.-... Q, What was the hour of prayers?. A. At eleven oclock. I have generally children to baptize, and frequently pensionera to bury, that are buried always immediately after church... A After church in the morning service? t A. Yes. Q, Then you would have been time enough?-A; Not to have gone to the fields.. Mr. Artarnqy General. But. you might have taken the opportunity to have gone upon so important an occasion. A. I
