

Alter Ego: The Policemans File

This is the biography of a 12 yr veteran in Law Enforcement. He leads by example, and shows the periods of growth, and trials throughout his life, to become a successful business professional. Choices have to be made by all of us. This officer shares his most inner struggles with self, and his own culture. Sometimes the truth hurts. True to life accounts of police experiences, on, and off duty, as well as undercover work, and what goes on in the mind of a young black officer. In seeing both sides of the playing field, he learns to level the perception, and balance an inner struggle that forever haunts him. Nothing worth having is easy; not even a prestigious career. People see what they want to be, and fear the unknown. There is a hero in all of us, but we can only lead by example. This is his life. The struggle continues...This is Cops in depth, through printed text. (NON-FICTION) 281 pgs. FOR EACH BOOK SOLD: 1.00 is donated to the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY.
